

The New York Tribune's
The Gotham Weekly Gazette

PART VII

SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 1914.

Published every Sunday

LOCAL NEWS

News continues scarce these torrid days.

Geo. Perkins of here has been busy these warm days.

Wedding bells are the order of the day in these parts.

Will Hearst, another newspaper man, saw the Winter Garden show twice this week.

Theo. Roosevelt was not in Spain last Sunday but Paris. No word from him today.

Max Hart of Chicago the w. k. clothing impresario is in our busy midst at this writing.

There is lots of talk around about the yacht races although we have not heard a word of it.

Are you going away for the torrid epoch, namely summer? Let THE GAZETTE follow you.—Adv.

Diamond Jim Brady who was on the ailing list last week is reported as some better at this writing.

The summer exodus from the hot and throbbing city is said to have begun which may be why the Dyckman St. subway trains at ten thirty nights run only five cars as they did Wednes.

Jack Mitchel was not in his office Thurs. he being away on bus. Teddy Rousseau said.

Yesterday was a big day at Princeton and Charley Orth, Steve Whitman, Beef Wheeler and Tom Niles was all there.

Charley Riegelman got a hair-cut this week and if he doesn't want his name in the paper, like he says, he should stop doing things which have news value.

Herb Swope and wife Mrs. Pearl Swope are going to Europe Wednes. this being in the nature of an exclusive story THE GAZETTE having it before Herb's paper the N. Y. World.

Miss Hilda Hedley gave a lime juice party at her Andrews Ave. home Thursday afternoon. Miss Willetts of New Rochelle poured and was assisted in receiving by Miss Helen Hedley.

Gelett Burgess to Wed

Famed Author to Take Bride Next Week.

Gelett Burgess the well known writer of fiction & poems and artist, is going to be married some day this week to Miss Estelle Loomis of here and Scranton, Pa.

After the wedding ceremony Mr. Burgess and his bride, who is an author in her own right, and a young woman of no small degree of charm and beauty, will sail for Europe to remain for a protracted sojourn.

The many friends of the pair wish them the greatest possible happiness. THE GAZETTE congratulates the bride upon gaining a husband with as fine a character as is in the periphery of THE GAZETTE's acquaintances.

MT. VERNON MUTTERINGS

—Louise Dresser lost her dog.

—Mrs. Eddie Garvie had her appendix out last wk.

—Edwin Stevens is having his roof painted.

—John C. Rice has planted a hedge.

—Alma Gluck is planting radishes.

—Lulu Glaser's house is for sale.

—Chief of Police White of S. Francisco & wife are visiting the Irene Franklin Burt Greens this week.

—More anon.

BLUEBELL.